

Esther 2:17-20

WHO?

<sup>17</sup>The king

WHAT?

loved

WHO?

Esther

More than WHO?

more than all the women, (  Do you see the Contrast? Esther vs. all the women.)

and

WHO?

she

WHAT?

found favor

and

WHAT Else?

kindness

with WHO?

with him (Who?)

more than WHO?

more than all the virgins, (  Again, the Contrast?)

so (  What was the Conclusion?)

(Because of all the above - because the king loved Esther more than all the women – all the virgins.)

WHAT did he do?

that he set the royal crown on her head

and

WHAT?

made WHO?

made her (Who?)

WHAT?

queen

instead

Of WHO?

of Vashti. (☐ What is being Contrasted?)

Then WHO?

<sup>18</sup> Then the king

WHAT?

gave a great banquet,

WHOSE banquet?

Esther's banquet,

For WHO?

for all his princes

and

WHO?

his servants;

WHO?

he (the king)

WHAT?

also made a holiday

for WHO?

for the provinces

and

WHAT else did he do?

gave gifts

according to WHAT?

according to the king's bounty.

WHEN?

<sup>19</sup> When

WHO?

the virgins

WHAT?

were gathered together

WHEN?
the second time,

At this time then WHO?
then Mordecai

was WHERE?
was sitting at the king's gate.

WHO?
<sup>20</sup> Esther

WHAT?
had not yet made known

WHAT?
her kindred

or

WHAT?
her people,

Even as even as

WHO?
Mordecai

Had WHAT?
had commanded her;

WHY not made known?
for Esther

WHAT?
did what

WHO?
Mordecai

WHAT?
told her

as

She WHAT?
she had done

WHEN?

when under his care.

(What is being compared?)
