

Esther 3:1-6

WHEN?

After these events (🕒 This is giving us the timing) (What events?)

WHO?

King Ahasuerus

WHAT?

promoted

WHO?

Haman,

WHO is Haman?

the son of Hammedatha

the WHAT?

the Agagite,

and

WHAT?

advanced him

and

WHAT?

established his authority

Over WHO?

over all the princes

Who were WHERE?

who were with him. (*Him
who?*)

WHO?

² All the king's servants

Were WHERE?

who were at the king's gate

WHAT?

bowed down

and

WHAT?

paid homage

TO WHO?

to Haman;

WHY?

for so the king

WHAT?

had commanded concerning him. (Who?)

But ( Do you see the contrast?)

WHO?

Mordecai

WHAT?

neither bowed down

nor

WHAT?

paid homage.

³ Then

WHO?

the king's servants

Who were WHERE?

who were at the king's gate

WHAT?

said

To WHO?

to Mordecai,

WHAT?

"Why are you transgressing the king's command?"

WHEN?

⁴ Now it was when

WHO?

they (They who?)

WHAT?

had spoken

HOW often?

daily

To WHO?

to him (Him who?)

and

he

WHAT?

would not listen to them (Them who?),

That WHO?

that they (Who?)

WHAT? WHO?

told Haman

WHY?

to see

Whether WHO?

whether Mordecai's

WHAT?

reason would stand;

WHY? What was his reason?

for he (Who?)

WHAT?

had told them (Them who?)

WHAT?

that he was a Jew.

 See the timing)

⁵When Haman

WHAT?

saw that Mordecai

WHAT?

neither bowed down

nor

WHAT?

paid homage to him, (Who?)

WHO?

Haman

Was WHAT?

was filled with rage.

⁶ But

WHO?

he (Who?)

WHAT?

disdained

To WHAT?

to lay hands

On WHO?

on Mordecai alone,

WHY?

for they (Who?)

WHAT?

had told him (Who?)

WHAT?

who the people of Mordecai were;

therefore

What's being concluded? What is the therefore, there for?

WHO?

Haman

WHAT?

sought to destroy

WHO?

all the Jews,

WHY? WHO are they?

the people of Mordecai,

Who were WHERE?

who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.
