

Esther 5:9-14

Then WHO?

⁹ Then Haman

WHAT?

went out (Out from where?)

WHEN?

that day (See the  Time Phrase)

HOW?

glad

and

HOW?

pleased of heart;

but ( 'but' indicates a contrast, what is being contrasted?)

WHAT happened?

WHEN WHO?

when Haman

WHAT?

saw

WHO?

Mordecai

WHERE?

in the king's gate

and

WHO?

that he (Mordecai)

WHAT?

did not stand up

or

WHAT?

tremble before him,

WHAT happened?

WHO?

Haman

WHAT?

was filled with anger

against WHO?

against Mordecai.

WHO?

¹⁰ Haman

WHAT?

controlled himself,

however, ( LOOK for the Contrast)

WHAT?

went to his house

and

WHAT?

sent for

WHO?

his friends

and

WHO else?

his wife Zeresh.

Then WHO?

¹¹ Then Haman

WHAT?

recounted

To WHO?

to them (Them who? His friends/wife)

WHAT?

the glory of his riches,

and

WHAT?

the number of his sons,

and

WHAT?
every instance

where WHO?
where the king

WHAT?
had magnified him

and

WHAT?
how he (He who? The king)

WHAT?
had promoted him (Him who? Haman)

HOW? WHERE?
above

WHO?
the princes
and
WHO? servants of the king.

WHO?
¹² Haman

WHAT?
also said,

Even WHO?
“Even Esther the queen

WHAT?
let no one

but (☐ What is being contrasted?)

WHO?
me

WHAT?

come with the king

To WHERE?

to the banquet which she had prepared;

and

WHEN?

tomorrow also (See the  Time Phrase)

WHAT?

I am invited

By WHO?

by her with the king.

¹³ Yet ( What is being Contrasted?)

WHAT?

all of this

WHAT?

does not satisfy me

WHEN?

every time I see

WHO?

Mordecai the Jew

WHAT?

sitting at the king's gate."

Then WHO?

¹⁴ Then Zeresh his wife

and

WHO?

all his friends

WHAT?

said to him,

WHAT?

"Have a gallows fifty cubits high made

and

WHEN?

in the morning (See the  Time Phrase)

WHAT?

ask the king

WHAT?

to have Mordecai

WHAT?

hanged on it;

Then WHAT?

then go

HOW?

joyfully

with WHO?

with the king

to WHERE?

to the banquet.”

And

WHAT?

the advice

WHAT?

pleased Haman,

So WHAT did he (Haman) do?

so he had the gallows made.
