

Esther 7:7-10

WHO?

The king

WHAT?

arose

HOW?

in his anger

from WHAT?

from drinking wine

and

WHAT?

went into the palace garden;

but

WHO?

Haman

WHAT?

stayed

WHY?

to beg for his life

from WHO?

from Queen Esther,

WHY?

for he saw

WHAT?

that harm

WHAT?

had been determined against him

by WHO?

by the king.

Now WHEN WHO WHAT?

⁸ Now when the king returned

from WHERE?
from the palace garden

into WHERE?
into the place

WHERE?
where they were drinking wine,

WHO?
Haman

WHAT?
was falling on the couch where Esther was.

Then WHO WHAT?

Then the king said,

WHAT?
“Will he even assault

WHO?
the queen

WHEN?
with me in the house?”

WHAT happened?

As WHAT?

As the word went out of WHO?

of the king’s mouth,

WHO?
they

WHAT?
covered Haman’s face.

Then WHO?

⁹ Then Harbonah,

who is WHAT?

one of the eunuchs who were before the king

WHAT?

said, "Behold indeed, the gallows

WHERE?

standing at Haman's house

WHAT?

fifty cubits high,

which WHO?

which Haman made for Mordecai

who WHAT?

who spoke good on
behalf of the king!"

And

WHO WHAT?

And the king said,

WHAT?

"Hang him on it."

So WHO?

¹⁰ So they

WHAT?

hanged Haman

on WHAT?

on the gallows

which WHO?

which he

WHAT?

had prepared for Mordecai,

and

WHO?

the king's

WHAT?

anger subsided.
