

The Book of Jude

Verses 1-4

v1 WHO are we talking about?

Jude,

WHAT is Jude?

a bond-servant

a bond-servant of WHO?

of Jesus Christ,

and

WHAT else is Jude?

brother

of WHO?

of James, (Who is this James? Tap his name and find out in the dictionary!)

WHO is Jude writing to?

To those

WHO are WHAT?

who are the called,

WHAT else are they?

beloved

in WHO?

in God

WHO is God?

the Father,

and

WHAT else are they?

kept

for WHO?

for Jesus Christ:

May WHAT?

2 May mercy

and

WHAT?

peace

and

WHAT else?

love

be WHAT?

be multiplied

to WHO?

to you. (Who is the you?)

WHO?

3 Beloved,

WHEN? WHO? WHAT?

while I was making every effort to WHAT?

to write you

Write you about WHAT?

about our common salvation,

WHAT happened?

I felt the necessity to write

Write to WHO?

to you

Write WHAT?

appealing that you contend earnestly

Contend for WHAT?

for the faith

Which WHAT?

which was once for all handed down

to WHO?

to the saints.

WHY writing this?

WHO?

4 For certain persons

have WHAT?

have crept

crept WHERE?

in (In where?)

crept HOW?

unnoticed,

WHO are these certain persons?

those who were

WHAT? WHEN?

long beforehand marked out

Marked out for WHAT?

for this condemnation,

WHAT are these persons?

ungodly persons

who WHAT?

who turn the grace of our God

into WHAT?

into licentiousness

and

WHAT else do they do?

deny

WHO?

our only

WHAT?

Master

and

WHAT?

Lord,

WHO?

Jesus Christ.
